

6 January 1949

Vice Admiral J. L. Hall, Jr., USN
Commandant
Armed Forces Staff College
Norfolk 12, Virginia

Dear Admiral:

In reply to your invitation to give a lecture at the Armed Forces Staff College on 8 March 1949, I assure you that, in principle, I shall be delighted to accept. So far as I can determine now, I shall be able to make the lecture personally. However, in case anything should come up between now and 8 March which might make it necessary for me to be absent from the country, I can assure you that I shall send a very competent replacement.

I shall let you know later the exact time of my arrival and where, etc. The time scheduled for the lecture, 1000, is satisfactory.

With very best wishes, please believe me,

Sincerely,

*Respectfully,
1/6/49*
